

ENGLISH

ANSWERKEY

EHSTT01-A

1. c) Bernardo
2. c) Horatio
3. b) The Murder of Gonzago
4. c) Marcellus
5. c) Act III Scene i
6. c) Pirates intervene his ship
7. c) Metaphor and antithesis
8. b) A forensic device to mislead enemies
9. b) T. S. Eliot
10. d) Polonius
11. d) Claudius poured poison in his ear
12. b) Eight
11. c) Both Viola and Sebastian
14. c) Cesario
15. b) Foolishness and vanity
16. a) Hidden wisdom
17. a) The forged letter
18. a) Feste
19. d) The Comedy of Errors
20. a) Ill-will
21. a) Both true; R explains A
22. a) Both true; R explains A
23. a) Malvolio
24. a) "Youth's a stuff will not endure."
25. c) A true; R false
26. a) I & III only
27. b) little song
28. b) ABAB CDCD EFEF GG
29. c) Fair Youth sonnets
30. b) beauty is subject to temporality
31. b) A true, R false
32. c) The sun
33. b) Personification
34. c) The poem/text
35. b) Question '! reasons of inadequacy '! promise of immortality
36. b) "But thy eternal summer shall not fade"
37. b) The power of art to memorialize (monumentum aere perennius)
38. b) Nostalgic sorrow
39. b) Memory and emotional accounting
40. a) Line 9
41. b) Complaint '! Consolation
42. c) Change and circumstance
43. c) Shakespearean sonnet
44. b) A farmer with a sickle
45. a) A and R true; R explains A
46. b) Three-person'd God
47. b) Holy Sonnets
48. b) Reform/renew him
49. b) God in Trinitarian unity
50. a) Stoic autonomy
51. b) Mild to violent divine operations
52. a) i-a, ii-b, iii-c, iv-d
53. b) Alliteration on "b"
54. b) Sin's bondage '! divine assault '! paradoxical freedom
55. c) A friend/critic to be silent
56. b) Saints of love
57. b) Metaphysical
58. a) Hyperbole and rhetorical question
59. c) Rebirth and unity of two in one
60. a) i-a, ii-b, iii-c, iv-d
61. c) Five
62. c) No one at all
63. a) Pastoral elegy
64. b) Edward King
65. b) Drowning at sea
66. a) "Uncouth swain"
67. b) Cambridge (River Cam)
68. b) A shepherd/poet
69. b) Prosopopoeia/personification
70. b) Lament and testify to Lycidas' loss
71. c) 1638
72. b) Cambridge affiliation
73. b) The Fall of Man
74. c) Serpent (inhabited by Satan)
75. c) Tragic
76. c) Caution her but allow freedom
77. b) Knowledge of Good and Evil
78. c) Flattery and sophistry
79. b) Lust and shame
80. b) Fig-leaves sewn together
81. b) Dryden
82. b) Shadwell
83. a) Son/heir of Flecknoe in dulness
84. b) A mediocre writer satirized by Dryden
85. b) Shadwell
86. b) Whig
87. a) Charles II
88. a) Being earlier and more politically topical
89. b) Succession rhetoric
90. c) Irony-hyperbole
91. c) Evening/twilight
92. c) Funereal stillness and tradition
93. b) 1751
94. a) Paradox / gnomic sententia
95. b) Providential and social constraints
96. b) Fame vs. obscurity; ambition vs. humility
97. b) Witness-narrator within the poem's frame
98. c) Pradhan Mantri Schools for Rising India
99. c) 14,500
100. Cancelled